In terms of seeing the Northern Lights, the best time to visit Finland is from September to March. While there is no guarantee of seeing the lights, the itinerary includes several activities that offer the opportunity to see them, such as the Northern Lights snowmobile tour in Levi and the snowshoeing tour in Oulu. It's also important to note that the Northern Lights are a natural phenomenon and are dependent on various factors such as solar activity and weather conditions.

Overall, this itinerary offers a mix of cultural experiences, outdoor activities, and relaxation time. With a focus on deluxe and premium hotels and Indian restaurants, it provides a comfortable and enjoyable experience for travelers looking to explore Finland in style.
